FOOTBALL TEAM

McDonald High School football fans followed their team through a schedule of seven games this past season, which ended with the team winning two and losing five. Mr. Blockowicz was assisted by Mr. Scarci. Only five seniors were on the squad. McDonald played its best ball against South Side and Claysville and seemed to let down against their other opponents. McDonald's eighth game, with Avella, was cancelled due to the influenza epidemic. South Fayette, Cecil, Midway, Brentwood, and Hickory all scored victories over McDonald.

Howard Bellaire, McDonald co-captain, was named on the Washington-Greene County first

Gene Penberthy and Howard Bellaire were elected co-captains by the Devils.

BAND and MAJORETTES

Leading the band were six high-stepping majorettes. These girls added color to the band as they demonstrated their abilities in twirling and marching. The majorettes perfected their feats only after long hours of summer practices at the school and down at the football field in the evenings.

The band lost Mr. Mruk in January. He was replaced by Mr. Harvey Lederstein, who did a very commendable job.

The band is fortunate in losing only five seniors this year.

We feel that the band and majorettes have done an outstanding job and hope they will continue to do so.

The officers of the band include: Joye Masquelier, president; David Pletincks, vice president; Robert Lamb, secretary-treasurer; Beverly Cameron, librarian.

SENIOR PEP CLUB

The Pep Club of McDonald high is composed of the football and basketball teams, the school's cheering sections, and the school band. It is the job of the club members to support the teams and keep up the school spirit. The Pep Club also promotes good sportsmanship and leadership.

The Pep Club and cheerleaders are jointly sponsored by Mrs. Rosana Campbell.

The officers were: Peggy Masquelier, president; Ruth Ann Daniels, vice president; Mary Beth Hampson, secretary; Cindy Hookey, treasurer.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

SEATED (left to right) — Mr. James C. Dunn, Mr. Benjamin Stasko, Mr. Howard Pettit.
STANDING — Mr. Edward Blockowicz, Robert Bastide, Richard Scott, Mr. Edward Hepe, Mr. Guy Tornabene.

The McDonald High School Athletic Council rendered another year of fine service in the scheduling of and advertising games, providing tickets for games, buying athletic equipment, sponsoring sports banquets, and providing transportation for away games.

School board, faculty, and senior high school representatives comprise the membership of the organization. The officers are: Mr. H. M. Pettit, president; Mr. Earl Cameron, Jr., vice president; and Mr. Benjamin Stasko, secretary-treasurer. Faculty members are Mr. Edward Blockowicz, Mr. Edward Hepe, and Mr. Frank Scarci. Student representatives are: Richard Scott, senior; Robert Bastide, junior; and William Tornabene, sophomore.

An all-sports banquet was held this year by the council. They also bought basketball equipment, presented awards at the Awards Assembly, and provided care for the football field. The new basketball uniforms were the outstanding items of equipment bought this year.

MANAGERS

Behind our athletic teams is a group of hard-working boys known as the managers.

The managers should receive extra credit because they have served faithfully throughout the football and basketball seasons. They worked long and hard keeping up the "Old McDonald Spirit" for the players. They have to take the jokes when the players are in good moods and they are the object of everything when the players lose their tempers.

Among their many and varied responsibilities are the care of equipment, lining of the field for home games, keeping sports statistics, and being prepared with a first-aid kit.

What would we do without the managers? Let's recognize the managers and give them the appreciation that is due.

Queen and Football Dance

The football season was concluded by one of the most important social events of the year, the Football Dance. The affair is annually sponsored by the Lettermen's Club.

The highlight of the Football Dance was the crowning of the Queen, Ruth Ann Daniels. As her Maid of Honor, the queen chose Head Cheerleader Peggy Masquelier. In an impressive ceremony, the Queen was escorted to her throne by Howard Bellaire and crowned by Gene Penberthy, 1957 football co-captains. The Queen was attended by the cheerleaders, the Pep Club officers, and the senior majorettes.

Patricia Howell was crown bearer and Keith Kovach was the Red Devil.

The coronation will remain as a high spot of the school year to anyone who was fortunate enough to attend it.

"For a Better - Read, Better - Informed M.H.S. Student — Use Your Library."

Our high school library is small but very busy. Its books hold a variety of interest and appeal to the voluntary reader. Here, too, one finds much to enrich the regular curricular studies.

The library is open every minute of the school day and is staffed by fifteen student librarians who are: Fayth Fereday, Rachel Gilbert, Joyce Daout, Connie Borovich, Joyce Lemon, Carol Smith, Dorothy McDowell, Marcia Powell, Patty Berry, Anne Hospador, Bette Liebert, Anna Marie Sansone, Gaynelle Scott, Susie Randour, Charlotte Markovich, and Joyce Altieri.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America, sponsored by Miss Delores Ammons, had a very successful year. At the traditional candlelight service held at the beginning of the school year, Joette Russell was installed as president; Ruth Ann Daniels as vice president; Patricia Hart, secretary; Marianne Siry, treasurer; Elizabeth Siry, historian; and Helen Marie Fini, degree chairman.

Pauline Eiler, Lana Murdock, and Carol Lee Eiler represented McDonald at the State Farm Show held at Harrisburg. They gave a demonstration on cake decorating. Miss Ammons accompanied the girls on their three-day trip.

As their service project, the girls collected clothes for the needy. The clothes were distributed all around the world by the Christian Children's Fund.

As a money-making project the girls sold candy at the home basketball games.

To round out a very active program, a Mother and Daughter Banquet was held in April.

Future Teachers of America

The F.T.A. is composed of juniors and seniors who desire to make teaching their profession.

The purpose of the club is to give prospective teachers an idea of what school teaching involves and also to give them some practical experience by observing classes and doing some student teaching. The members of the club render a definite service by substituting for teachers.

The club began its year with a spaghetti dinner, prepared and served by the officers. The guest of honor, Miss Kirk, gave the members practical information on colleges.

Several members attended a meeting on special education at Hempfield Area Senior High, Greensburg, and also the Washington County meeting of all F.T.A. members at California State Teachers' College.

Along with observing classes in other schools, the members visited one of the special schools for underprivileged children in Pittsburgh, took part in the play, "The Other Side of the Desk," along with the Engineers Club, and met jointly with the F.T.A. from Midway and Hickory.

The officers for this year were: Ruth Ann Daniels, president; Mary Beth Hampson, vice president; Helen Marie Fini, secretary; Elizabeth Siry, treasurer; and Ellen Bednar, historian.

G. A. A.

Tuesday and Friday found most of the McDonald boys counting their pennies on their way to the gym.

Five cents was the price for an hour's entertainment of watching the girls play basketball in the newly-organized G.A.A. tournaments.

The G.A.A. was reorganized in the fall of '57 by Miss Doris Dawson, the sponsor. At that time the club chose the following officers: Rose Lesjak, president; Marsha Powell, vice president; Mary Hampson, secretary; Jean Gaitens, treasurer; Sandra Montgomery, publicity chairman.

The club's purpose is to help each member develop the qualities of sportsmanship, courtesy, co-operation, fair play, and leadership through participation in sports.

The game began with the Flower Bowl Tournament. In this mix-up tournament, Foulable Freshmen found themselves playing on the same teams with Sporty Sophomores, Jumping Juniors, and Speedy Seniors. These games revealed a sink-em-all Sophomore Fern Smith. A few of the other sharpshooting stars were Gaynelle Scott, Joette Russell, and Nancy Hampson.

The clash of the classes was the second basketball tournament. Each class was represented by two teams. In this round robin series each team played seven games.

The deserving Seniors received gold charms. The underclassmen with the highest number of points received letters.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

Promoting a high standard of sportsmanship and having good relations with opponents in all athletic events is the goal of the Lettermen's Club.

Composed of boys who take part in sports activities at McDonald High School, this organization is a contributing factor in the successful athletic program of the school.

Ruth Ann Daniels, this year's Football Queen, was chosen by the Lettermen's Club.

Richard Scott was chosen as the 1958 athlete of the year. This is another decision made by the club.

The officers of the club are Gene Penberthy, president; Richard Scott, vice president; and Regis Smith, secretary-treasurer.

The coaches, Mr. Hepe, Mr. Blockowicz, and Mr. Scarci, and the officers of the club have worked hard for another year so that the club could maintain its chief goal, that of sportsmanship.

Most Valuable Player --- 1958

Richard Scott was selected as the "Most Valuable Player" of 1958 by the members of the Lettermen's Club.

Richard won two letters in basketball. He was a member of three section championship teams and was captain of the basketball team in his senior year. He was chosen because of his fine play on the basketball court, his character, scholarship, and his leadership ability.

In addition to being active in the sports field, Richard was a member of the Engineers Club, vice president of the Lettermen's Club, circulation manager of the Laurel, and a member of the Athletic Council.

CHEERLEADERS

Under the leadership of Peggy Masquelier, the cheerleaders of McDonald High started practicing the latter part of August and continued practicing until the end of school, learning new cheers and perfecting old ones.

The girls cheered for assemblies, football and basketball games, and worked hard at the job of keeping up the school spirit. They are responsible for the assembly programs which they try to keep varied and interesting.

The cheerleaders are under the sponsorship of Mrs. Campbell.

THE CHRONICLE

The Chronicle is finished at last after much hard work and preparation by the editor, Ruth Ann Daniels, and her able assistants.

The '58 Chronicle, under the supervision of Miss Kirk and published by the journalism class, was very successful although it was somewhat difficult finding material, getting it checked, typed, and sent to press on time.

A project such as publishing a newspaper gave the students experience in composition, the usage of good English, and responsibility. The students have to obtain money by securing advertisements from local businesses. This gives the students a chance to get out and associate with the public. In spite of the financial headaches, all bills have been paid.

The advertising staff, headed by Tom

Lemon, and his assistant, Gene Penberthy, did a good job of getting advertisements.

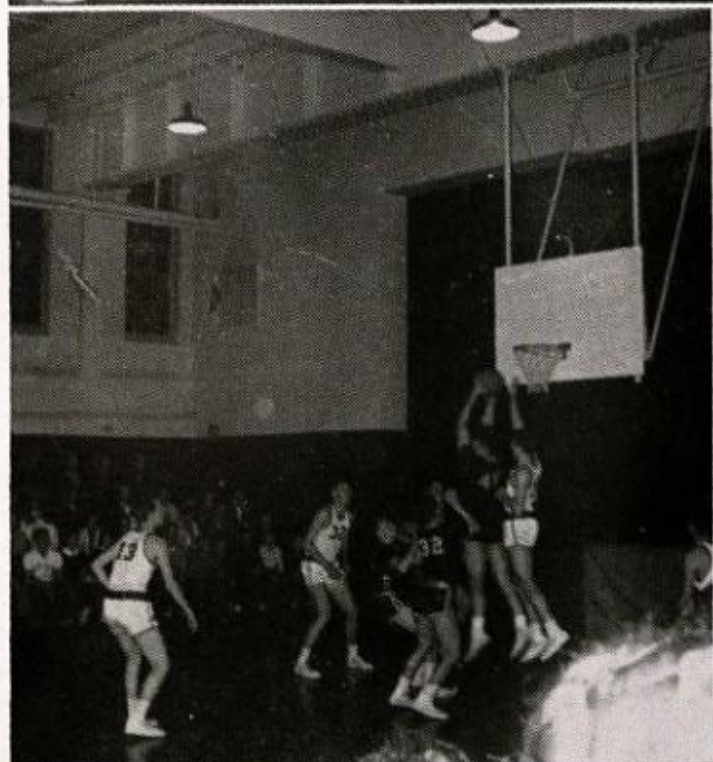

The editorial staff, under the leadership of Ruth Ann Daniels, assisted by Joye Masquelier, Judith Randour, Joette Russell, and Patricia Berry, did a very efficient job in getting the material assembled. The other staffs, including art, headed by Ellen Bednar, assisted by William Miller and Henry Moreau; circulation, headed by Nona Stierheim, assisted by Peggy Masquelier, Mary Novak, and Gloria Hennon; business, headed by Rose Lesjak, assisted by Jo Etta Simpson and Marsha Powell; girls' sports, Gaynelle Scott, and boys' sports, John Nolte.

The Chronicle staff would like to express its appreciation to the businesses of McDonald and surrounding communities for their co-operation and patronage and say a hearty, sincere "Thank you." Without their help the '58 Chronicle would not have been possible.

LAUREL STAFF

The 1958 Laurel is a very good example of what American youth can do if and when they are presented with a task. The students of this school, as well as the seniors, can be very proud of this edition of the Laurel.

The book is based on the "Seasons of the Year." This theme was chosen by the editorial staff of the Laurel at the beginning of the year. The Editorial Staff, headed by Jack McDowell as Editor-in-Chief, was responsible for keeping the rest of the staffs busy.

We feel our Business Staff did an excellent job in securing advertisements and subscriptions. Money was also raised by means of a 25c dance, the annual boxing glove game and the selling of magazines. The class as a whole did a good job of soliciting names of patrons.

The Art Staff, directed by Mr. Davis, is responsible for the fine artwork on the division pages. The Sports Staff is responsible for statistics and sports information found in our book. The Circulation Staff is in charge of making sure everyone receives his Laurel.

The class wishes to express its deepest thanks to Mrs. Virginia Bee and Mr. Benjamin Stasko, who took over in the absence of Miss Kirk, for their fine assistance and guidance. We also wish to thank all of the patrons and advertisers, without whose financial help our yearbook could not have been possible.

ENGINEER'S CLUB

The club undertook a project at the first of the school year. They began to draw up and construct a scale model of the Fort Cherry Jr. and Sr. High School. The boys, under the direction of Miss Campbell and Mr. Stasko, worked many hours to perfect the building and surrounding area. The project, which was perfect in almost every respect, was displayed on Open House Night. The project was explained Open House Night by Robert Lamb, Robert Bastide, and Robert Bernhart.

The Engineer's Club, which is a relatively new club in M.H.S., was sponsored by Miss June Campbell and Mr. Benjamin Stasko. The requirement of the club is that students have at least a B average in Mathematics and Science. The club is open to Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. One of the main purposes of the club is to acquaint prospective engineers with the moral and social responsibilities of entering the engineering profession. Citizenship and conduct are stressed over and above all academic requirements. The members have upheld these high principles as demonstrated by the fact that they received a special letter of commendation on their attitude and behavior during the University of Pittsburgh field trip in March.

"The Other Side of the Desk," written by Miss June Campbell, was produced by the Future Teachers of America and the Engineer's Club. The play was written specifically for the teachers of the Fort Cherry School District. It was presented for them on February 17 in the McDonald Auditorium.

The officers of the club are Robert Bastide, president; John McDowell, treasurer; and Robert Lamb, secretary.

Adelante siempre adelante. (Forward always forward.)

The Pan-American Club of McDonald High meets the first and third Mondays of each month. The officers are Karen Purdy, presidente; Bill Tornabene, vice presidente; Pauline Eiler, secretaria; Susie Randour, tesorera; Carol Eiler, reportera.

Our club activities include reviewing books with Latin background; singing and dancing to Spanish music; playing games; working puzzles; reading pen pal letters; Spanish movies, etc. Once a year we trek off in our chartered bus to a performance of famous Spanish dancers such as Jose Greco or Carmen Amaya.

At Christmas, the club celebrates the annual Las Pasadas.

The first-year students become P.A.C. members in February at an exciting initiation party where a pinata is broken. In March the newcomers return the party with a merienda.

Before the year comes to a close, there must be una comida of frijoles and tortillas — and perhaps a picnic later on in the spring, but the big day for the P.A.C. is April 14, Pan-American Day.

Hasta la vista mis amigos. Adios.

Garen,

To my best friend, and the nicest girl I know. Remember always the good times we have had together. And don't forget the good times we had when I went with Rusty. I'll never forget them and I doubt that you will. I hope you and Bob last a lifetime. If you don't I'll know how you feel. It's no fun thinking about someone you can't have, and you'll have Bob as long as you want him. (You lucky dog) Don't forget the walks we all took last summer, too bad we can't take them again this summer. Oh well! Do you still remember the times we started to run away from home and ended up coming back an hour later!

I sure hope we can have as much fun this summer and every summer as we did all the other years we have been Best friends.

Remember also the nights at your house with Bob & Rusty and the fights we had with our men.

Remember the nights we slept at each others houses and the lady sweeping her porch at 1:30 A.M.

Whatever you do kid, don't loose your finest man. (Bob)
He's too good a kid to loose!
Love
Your best friends,
Shirley & Rusty
(too bad)

Karen,
 To a real fine
 woman and one of my best friends.
 Always remember our trips to the Dairyland and all the other things
 we have done together.
